SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

SEA GIRT, June 21 .- Gov. and Mrs James F. Fielder have taken up their residence at the Little White House here, and with their advent Sea Girt becomes the summer capital of New Jersey. The social activities always dependent upon the arrival of the Executive have taken on their summer gait and a lively season among the cot-tagers and hotel patrons is assured. It is planned to make the summer season one of unusual pleasure, and if present indications are to be relied upon Mrs. Fielder will play an important part in While the Bull Moose are in session Col. the programme of events. It is said that the leading lady of the State intends to entertain extensively at the Executive Mansion. Gov. Fielder himself has announced plans which will make the Little White House the scene of activities such as were abandoned last summer by President Wilson owing to the strenuous campaign he was then waging. Governor's days will be assumed again this year and every Monday night during the encampment of the New Jersey soldiery he will be the host at dinners in honor of the officers in camp. In order to permit weekend visitors to the shore to witness the weekly parade of the soldiers Gov. Fielder has already designated Friday of each week for Governor's day.
